The initial run of our new mp3-CD with 20 of Dr. Pierce's best speeches and radio broadcasts, William Pierce: The Power of Truth, Volume 1, that was featured in the November BULLETIN is more than half sold and mailed. Thanks to pre-orders, we had all of the mailers addressed and stamped, ready to insert CDs as soon as the shipment of them arrived. Those buyers whose orders arrived at the National Office by 17 December were mailed on 18 December, in time to be given as Yule season gifts.

The CD remains available and can be ordered by mail as described in the November BULLETIN, or ordered online at:

Raising Funds

The National Alliance has struggled financially through 2015 but is solvent at year's end. Money is needed as we start the new year: $3,000 more in property taxes will be paid by January 1, 2016, bringing the total paid for West Virginia county taxes by Chairman Williams in this last year to around $9,000. Funds are also needed to keep our attorneys and accountants working for us. Many planned projects need funding, but we can wait on them until a member wins the lottery (just kidding!). Seriously, what gives us the biggest boost each year is when members and supporters pay their dues ahead in January for six months or for the entire year. For those who can do so, please consider how much this helps our organization prepare for our Spring offensive.

There were no takers on the unique signed copy of Dr. William Pierce's novel Hunter, with a January 1990 personal dedication by him to Ben Klassen, that was offered to Alliance members and supporters in the September BULLETIN. It will be offered for sale in other venues, unless a member or supporter speaks up immediately. If interested, write at once via email to:

alliancechairman@natall.com

Chairman Williams will continue to sell unique personal items of his to raise funds for Alliance-building and will continue to give Alliance members and supporters first choice of these items, keeping it "in the family" as much as possible.

Original Portrait of Dr. Pierce

The portrait that Will Williams painted of Dr. Pierce in 2001 is being offered to our supporters this month. It is the familiar pose of our National Alliance founder with his beloved Siamese cat companion, Hadley, perched on his shoulder. Dr. Pierce often remarked that this was his favorite painting, and he displayed it in a place of honor behind the speakers' podium at the National Office. The suggested price to own this 18 x 24 framed painting is $2,500. Proceeds will go toward building the National Alliance organization. Write to our postal address or to the email address just given.

Lawsuit Update

The National Alliance's attorney in the Commonwealth of Virginia has docketed a hearing in March for what amounts to our motion to dismiss altogether the lingering $2 million lawsuit brought against former Alliance Chairman Erich Gliebe more than two years ago. In technical legalese, the hearing requested by us is for a Plea in Bar and Demurrer to be heard by the Commonwealth's Circuit Court judge assigned to the case. Among other affirmative defense arguments, it is the Alliance's contention that the plaintiffs never had standing to sue the organization in the first place. The six co-plaintiffs, disgruntled former National Alliance members, half of whom never met Dr. Pierce, formally resigned from the Alliance years ago, and will have been non-members for more than 40 months before our day in court finally arrives. Will Williams will have been Alliance chairman for 16 months at that time, and judgment-proof defendant Gliebe will have been officially resigned from the Alliance for the same 16 months prior to the hearing as well — making the entire suit moot, even apart from the litigants' total lack of standing.

Our attorney will handle the National Alliance's defense, in court. We use our media — our organizational and news sites, for example — to consistently and relentlessly awaken and inform White people of their racial plight, and we do not allow these media to become mired in the NARRG squabble, or any of the other rumor-mongering of our enemies on the Internet, which has been going on ever since the Internet came into existence. The six NARRGsters, on the other hand, use all their time, their blog, and their various social media accounts, not for activism for the White race, but instead strictly to attack the Alliance and its leadership. We know that discerning, intelligent White men and women can clearly see the difference

Researchers Needed

Dr. Pierce's Who Rules America? booklet, documenting Jewish ownership and control of the news and entertainment industry, has arguably been the single most important and widely read item of political literature produced by the National Alliance in its history. It began as an early article in the National Alliance's tabloid newspaper Attack! in 1974, titled "Masters of the Media." It was developed into a one-page leaflet which was updated nearly every year, and eventually expanded into the definitive Who Rules America? booklet.

Millions of Americans have been influenced by the facts compiled in Who Rules America? about Jewish control of Americans' thinking through Jewish control of the mass media. These are the opening paragraphs of the much-copied National Alliance report:

THERE IS NO GREATER POWER in the world today than that wielded by the manipulators of public opinion in America. No king or pope

Who Rules America?
A RESEARCH REPORT
You already know that the news and entertainment media are biased. Now you will find out why they are biased.
Updated November 2004. Copyright ©2004 by National Vanguard Books

WHO RULES AMERICA? is one of the most influential and oft-quoted research reports ever published from any source. With your help, we will produce a new, updated edition in 2016.

of old, no conquering general or high priest ever disposed of a power even remotely approaching that of the few dozen men who control America's mass media of news and entertainment.

Their power is not distant and impersonal; it reaches into every home in America, and it works its will during nearly every waking hour. It is the power that shapes and molds the mind of virtually every citizen, young or old, rich or poor, simple or sophisticated.

The mass media form for us our image of the world and then tell us what to think about that image. Essentially everything we know"or think we know" about events outside our own neighborhood or circle of acquaintances comes to us via our daily newspaper, our weekly news magazine, our radio, or our television.

It is not just the heavy-handed suppression of certain news stories from our newspapers or the blatant propagandizing of history-distorting TV "docudramas" that characterizes the opinion-manipulating techniques of the media masters. They exercise both subtlety and thoroughness in their management of the news and the entertainment that they present to us.

For example, the way in which the news is covered: which items are emphasized and which are played down; the reporter's choice of words, tone of voice, and facial expressions; the wording of headlines; the choice of illustrations — all of these things subliminally and yet profoundly affect the way in which we interpret what we see or hear...

Unfortunately, Who Rules America? has not been updated since 2004. Jews still control the mass media, but there has been a sea change in the forms of media and the companies and individuals who control them in the nearly twelve years since this important document was last revised. It's not just daily newspapers and weekly magazines, network television, radio, and Hollywood studios anymore — it's the Internet, it's social networking on Mark Zuckerberg's Facebook, it's Jewish-dominated Wikipedia, Google, Youtube, Yahoo, and others too numerous to mention here.

We need volunteers for this important publishing project. We cannot do it all ourselves. A few industrious members are asked to step up and accept the challenge to help us thoroughly document the changes in media and who the movers and shakers are, and do so in a professional manner. Corporate media ownership is a matter of public record and is therefore accessible. We can even use the Jews' own Internet research tools to establish current ownership and control. Join our research team! Contact our business office by email at:

businessoffice@natall.com

or drop a note in the mail to our Tennessee address.

We also need competent, dependable volunteers to help with adding content to our National Alliance Web sites, particularly to our online magazine, nationalvanguard.org. Traffic to that site has been steadily increasing, and we need to be constantly increasing the amount and quality of our content — and the man upon whom most of the work has devolved, our media director Kevin Strom, needs to give more of his attention to new media efforts that are in the planning stages. It's not difficult work, and it is necessary work. We'd like several members with editing and/or writing skills to add one or two unique articles per week. Be the eyes and ears of the White race — and use your skills and creativity to make a difference for our people.

Correspondence

Dear Chairman Will: Greetings, Kinsman! I hope this finds all going well for you. Thanks for the BULLETIN. I hope my letter was of some help.

Also, thanks for the well wishes for the parole hearing [in the October BULLETIN]. Unfortunately, the hearing did not go so well for me. It was held by video conference and the hearing officer was a Black female who did not like the fact that I spent 11 days in the hole last October for refusing to cell with a non-White inmate. Though this was a minor incident report, and the parole commission usually does not care about minor incident reports, this hearing officer took it personally. She also was a bit upset over my letter Jim Ring posted on his [NARRG] Web site. She asked me what the 14 Words meant in my signing off in the letter. When I told her, she very snidely said, "I thought so." I did not think of it at the time, but wish I would have told her that 14 Words is the equivalent of "Black Lives Matter."

This past Friday [11 December] I received the parole commission's Notice of Action with their final decision. My 26 years of almost pristine clear conduct did not matter... what mattered were my beliefs. Because of my beliefs, the parole commission finds "...if released from custody, there is a reasonably [sic] probability that you would violate the law." Therefore, "As a result of the hearing conducted on November 2, 2015, the following action was ordered: Continue to expiration."

With that, I am gone. Give my regards to all. Take care Kinsman. I wish you all the best in the New Year. 14 Words, — Richard Scutari, Louisiana

Chairman Williams responds: We wish a prosperous New Year to Richard, which will not be at all easy for him. He maintains a positive attitude despite his horrible situation. Richard also told me about all of the university course work and other schooling he's completed while incarcerated: several diplomas from the local community college and credentials as a Certified Master Technician from another long course of study. He had been offered a good job upon release and even financial backing if he wanted to start his own business. But he is a political prisoner, a thought criminal, and can't be released to be a productive member of society. What we could accomplish on The Land with a talented, dedicated man like Mr. Scutari on site!

Dear Chairman: The National Alliance, and NationalVanguard.org are the only places to find the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

There are other sites on the Internet who parrot the message of the National Alliance, but Dr. Pierce was the originator of most of the knowledge that enlightened people as to what was really happening in the world and why. Since he passed away many other people have started their own Web sites or organizations that are considered pro-White or alternative media, and use the work that Dr. Pierce made available when he was alive through his American Dissident Voices (ADV) broadcasts.

Dr. Pierce really stirred the pot and woke a lot of people up, and he posed a direct threat to the establishment. Since then, the establishment has created their own "alternative" Internet Media — which is primarily run by disinformation operatives who want to lull the public that Dr. Pierce awakened back to sleep, or shift the blame for all the disastrous policies being followed today on someone or something other than the Jews.

Alex Jones and Michael Rivero are two examples of those type of disinformation "alternative media" outlets. They basically admit to most of the facts that were hidden from the public before Dr. Pierce revealed them — but they put the blame for all of the problems on "globalists," "Bilderbergers," "greedy central bankers" or "the one-percenters" — but never on the Jews. — J.S., via the Internet

Hello people. I'm a recently graduated high school student from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania who has been paying attention to the broadcasts of the National Alliance and like-minded groups for the past couple years now. At first I was dismayed when I started looking for like-minded individuals as there was little common ground between me and the angry, violent skinheads (who are really hurting our ideal more than helping it, sadly) and the defeatists that were knowledgeable enough to realize radical and illegal actions would only hurt them in the long run — but were rendered cynical as a result of their knowing.

I found the National Alliance when I was watching a YouTube video and made a Wikipedia search for Dr. William Luther Pierce. I listened to his broadcasts then found Kevin Alfred Strom's more recent ones. I think I have listened to nearly all of the ones made since 2013 now and realized I had finally found a group with ideals similar to mine that was not only knowledgeable and grounded in reality but also hopeful and driven to the cause of building rather than destroying.

I am not a "racist" as in someone that "hates" people. While I recognize the inherent superiority and inferiority of some races and nations relative to others, I do not have some blind hate towards them for no good reason. I simply want my race (the White race, the European race, Americans, etc.) to not only survive these hard times but also be happy and joyful and proud of who we are and of our great legacy, rather than committing suicide for the sake of our natural rivals and enemies.

I also admit my ignorance. I am by no means an "expert" on the cultures and genetics of foreign races and nations, and while I admire the strengths of the East Asians and understand the fraternity of some of the Arabian and other nations, I do not think to ever push for a day where we are forced to co-exist and compromise our lifestyles.

While I am limited in my ability to assist the National Alliance, I am willing and able to bring others to our way of thinking and perhaps from there contribute more meaningfully to the Alliance. — A.W., Pennsylvania

Dear NA: This is just a note to briefly introduce myself. I am a retiree living on my farm/retreat in Kentucky. I was a past National Alliance member back when Dr. Pierce was running the organization. Like everyone else, I was very disappointed in the factionalism that ensued after Dr. P's death, but have strong hopes that the new leadership will be successful. We need it. — M.D., Kentucky

Greetings: I would like to say thank you for the opportunity to be here. I was browsing the Web, researching Dr. Pierce, and came across your page. Looks like an amazing site! I am hoping that I can find a comfortable spot within the community without the usual arguing and separation that I have found on most other White nationalist boards. To be honest, it's disheartening. Hopefully I can be a valuable addition to the forum as well as learn a few things too. — W.R., Illinois, via White Biocentrism

Note from Chairman Williams: The National Office has also received two letters from individuals concerned about the latest lurid claims being made by NARRG on their blog, which is now quoting a disgruntled ex-employee working with the Jewish "Southern Poverty Law Center" (SPLC) in order to smear the Alliance.

Confusion, doubt, and demoralization are the desired effects of this latest controversy stirred up by the SPLC. Don't fall for it.

The SPLC quotes my accuser, then NARRG quotes the SPLC as supposed "proof," crowing on their blog and Facebook that "Heidi Beirich says Will Williams is an obnoxious bully. See, we told you so!" What utter nonsense.

NARRG sued Erich Gliebe two years ago for fraud. The court will decide in a couple of months whether NARRG can even continue their lawsuit. In the meantime, be aware that a very strange collection of bedfellows is trying to shout down our Alliance and scare away our supporters in the cyberworld. While they're doing that, serious National Alliance members and supporters are working hard, taking risks, investing resources, and doing what it takes to win the hearts and minds of our people in the real world.

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

It Comes With the Territory

A clumsy coup, or takeover, of the National Alliance has been attempted this month by a couple of less than gruntled usurpers, former employees I'd hired to work in West Virginia. The plot started back in October or before, but didn't fully come to my attention until November, after I had fired one insubordinate staffer in our West Virginia office, Garland Corse (aka Garland DeCourcy, aka Gael Dempsey). I fired another staffer, Michael Olanich, Ms. Corse's young paramour and co-conspirator, earlier this month.

After she was hired, it gradually became apparent that Ms. Corse has some sort of personality disorder wherein she believes she is the smartest, most important person in every room, all the time. But she is not. She told an associate that she has Asperger's Syndrome. I don't claim to know what she's got — but one thing she hasn't got is a job with the National Alliance. That's what counts as we move forward.

I had had trouble with Corse early on, in the first month after her mysterious arrival back in April of this year. (At the precise moment that I suddenly had a need for a staffer on The Land, she showed up and told a story of being evicted and having "no place to go" and all the time in world on her hands.) She was defiant from the start. For example, I told her there would be no smoking her cigarettes in the office building. As soon as I would leave the building, she lit up for any and all others present to see — and to smell. It's hard to get good help.

This woman, who refused to join the Alliance even after becoming an employee, is obsessed with me and with the notion of having me removed as National Alliance Chairman. She thought she could manipulate local law enforcement and the court to get her way, then turn key Alliance members against me by sending them ridiculously long conspiracy-tinged emails, or making interminable, haranguing telephone calls, telling her listeners what a monster I am. She then escalated her attack by demanding huge sums of money and, failing in that, then making false charges of "assault" against me and filing for a "protective order." Her scheme is backfiring on her, however, and I should be able to write about a favorable outcome regarding her in the January BULLETIN.

These things happen. Corse stopped short of accusing me of sexual assault, but put in her request for a protection order that she feared I would come at her, armed, to sexually assault her. (That's humorous since I find her repellent.) The judge denied outright her request for protection from me. There were too many lies and too many contradictions in her wild stories. Her witnesses at the three-hour hearing, her young lover and her old landlord, were not helpful. They would not back up her lies to the judge.

Last year this same woman filed a 172-page motion for a protective order to "protect" her from a judge and others who had somehow "crossed" her in Virginia, the state where she had earlier been evicted. That case was dismissed in November of this year for lack of prosecution and for her failure to appear at a show cause hearing. She fled the Commonwealth without leaving a forwarding address.

A similar coup was attempted against Dr. Pierce by a female office staffer in the early 1980s. It failed.

Several years later, during his early years on The Land, Dr. Pierce was falsely charged with assault and rape by a newly-hired female employee who turned up at "just the right time" when the Alliance badly needed help — and who also turned out to be a "plant." In the end, the woman showed herself to be a very unconvincing liar and her charges were not believed.

There are definite similarities between those cases and the false charges Garland Corse has now brought against me. In the end my accuser will likely be proven as unreliable as was Dr. Pierce's false accuser, that long forgotten "honey pot" from 30 years ago.

It's not good to end the year on a sour note, but I want our supporters to report to me any negative communication they may have had with Garland Corse in recent months. The fact she has been working with both the SPLC and the NARRG group is a matter to which I will give serious attention.

We need better help on the mountain — trustworthy, motivated people who are self-starters. We'll find them eventually.

Best wishes for the New Year to all of you from the National Office of the National Alliance! W. W. W.
